

August 2021

Brent,

Thank you for making the process of selling my business easy for me and staying with it longer than we anticipated throughout this COVID environment. I am totally pleased with the outcome of the sale.

I would highly recommend Brent Bressler of Bressler Ventures to anyone considering selling their business. In the months that Brent marketed my business he maintained confidentiality and consistently looked out for my best interests. He kept me informed of any meaningful development or potential snag throughout the entire sales process. When there was an issue or problem, he was quick to respond and put out the fires.

I appreciate the continued follow through with the buyers during the transition phase to help keep all parties on the same page.

Job well done; I couldn't be happier!

Sincerely,

Floyd Walpole
